ORDER

The parties have been seeking adjournment by citing the reason that talks for amicable settlement were almost concluded. After six adjournments on that ground no final settlement is reached. Again a request for adjournment has been made on the ground that in order to reach the final settlement some properties are liable to be sold which may take some more time.

Keeping in view the aforesaid situation the hearing is deferred sine a die. Parties are at liberty to file appropriate application if the settlement is finalised or otherwise.
