Order

Learned counsel for the petitioner has drawn my attention to Para No.8 of the reply where the Practicing Company Secretary on behalf of the respondents has stated that the respondents would not be able to appear in New Delhi to attend the hearing of the petition which are frivolous as the respondents does not have any money and time to reach Delhi.

2. The aforesaid reply filed by the Practicing Company Secretary shows scant regard for the proceeding before the Company Law Board. The stand taken is one of defiance. However, one last opportunity is granted to the respondents to appear and defend the application seeking transfer of the petition from Bombay to Delhi.

Contd/-.....

3. If the respondents fail to appear, then the hearing of the application shall proceed and the order ex-parte shall be passed.
4. List the matter on 25.07.2016 at 2.00 p.m.
