ORDER

Ld. counsel for the Petitioner states that despite various efforts the service on respondents could not be effected. According to the report the Respondent No.1 company has moved out from the Registered Office and its present address is not known. Earlier, the registered office of the company was at Barakhamba Road, Connaught Place, New Delhi. Learned counsel further states that the Respondent No.2 appears to be arrested in some criminal case, as per media reports. Respondent No.3 has also remain unserved.

Faced with this situation, ld. counsel for the Petitioner has requested for substituted service under Or v 5 rule 20 CPC. Let the substituted services be effected by publication in two newspapers, one in English and the other in Hindi having wider circulation in Delhi and Noida. All necessary steps in this regard be taken with a clear stipulation that their failure to appear would result in raising adverse inference.

Needful be done at the earliest.

List on 19.05.2016 at 10.30 AM.
