Order

The petitioner side is present. The respondents side is absent.

- The petitioner counsel submits, their shareholding has been further diluted, even after filing this Company Petition. Hence he filed amendment application to include that fact in the main petition. There is another application from the petitioner side to maintain status quo over the existing shareholding.
- For the respondents side not being present, respondents are directed to file reply in both the applications within three weeks hereof, rejoinders, if any, within two weeks thereof.
- For the respondents side is not present as the petitioner having asked for some interim relief, he is directed to communicate this order to the respondents, enabling them to file reply before next date of hearing.
